

BLERA

Authentic Experiences

A personal invitation to live like a local in one of Italy's most untouched medieval villages.

Not a tour. An experience you can only have with us.

BLERA, TUSCIA — NORTHERN LAZIO, ITALY

The Experience

Blera is a medieval village in Tuscia, 80 km north of Rome, with Etruscan roots, volcanic landscapes, and a way of life that hasn't changed much in generations. No tourist crowds. No gift shops. Just real life.

What we offer isn't available on any booking platform. Every activity happens through personal relationships with local artisans, farmers, and families — people you could never access on your own. Your guide, Nikolai, is a qualified historical guide with deep roots in Blera who opens doors that would otherwise stay closed.

Three ways to enjoy the experience: the anticipation of planning it, the thrill of doing it, and the warmth of remembering it. We design every detail with all three in mind.

Available Activities

Each activity is exclusive — available only through us and our personal network in Blera.

Food & Artisan Craft

Cheesemaking with a Local Master

A hands-on session with Davide Paolocci in Civitella Cesi. You'll make cheese alongside him, taste his production, and visit the nearby archaeological site. A complete half-day experience.

Olive Oil Tasting

Visit a private olive estate and taste oils you won't find in any shop. Learn how the land, the harvest, and the pressing shape each oil's character.

Handmade Gnocchi

Learn to make gnocchi the way it's been done here for generations — by hand, in a local kitchen, with someone who's been doing it their whole life.

Panonto — Field Meal Over Fire

A traditional outdoor meal cooked over an open fire in the countryside. Bread, oil, grilled meat, local wine — the way farmers have eaten for centuries.

Nature & Outdoors

Mignone River Hike

A guided trek along the Mignone river valley with Leonardo Gentili, a forestry science graduate who knows every plant, bird, and trail. This isn't a walk — it's an education.

Horseback Riding

Ride through the Tuscia countryside on horseback, taking in landscapes that haven't changed in centuries.

Donkey Trekking

A gentle, unhurried walk through the hills with donkeys — a slower, more intimate way to experience the land.

Nature Walks with a Forestry Expert

Guided walks through woods, gorges, and volcanic landscapes with Leonardo Gentili. He'll show you things you'd walk right past without knowing — rare plants, geological formations, wildlife signs, and the ecology behind it all.

History & Culture

Etruscan Tombs & the Via Clodia

Walk through 2,500 years of history with Nikolai, a qualified historical guide. Explore rock-cut Etruscan tombs, the ancient Via Clodia, and sites that most visitors to Italy never see.

Day Excursions

Guided visits to Lago di Vico, Villa Lante, Palazzo Farnese, Viterbo, Tarquinia, or the Tyrrhenian coast — each brought to life with historical context you won't get from a guidebook.

Local Festivals & Sagre

If your visit coincides with a local festival or sagra, you'll be there as a guest, not a spectator — eating, drinking, and celebrating with the community.

What Makes This Different

- Exclusive access. Every activity runs through personal relationships. You can't find these experiences online or arrange them on your own.
- Small groups only. Maximum 6–10 guests. This isn't mass tourism.
- Real life, not a performance. You're joining activities that locals actually do — nothing is staged for visitors.
- Tuscia, not Tuscany. An undiscovered region with Etruscan heritage, volcanic lakes, medieval villages, and none of the crowds.

- Expert guides. A historical guide and a forestry scientist — your window into the culture and the land.
